FOREWORD

It is a subject of great pleasure that the Manuscript section of Dhaka University Library is published an index entitled “A Chorological Index of Bengali Manuscripts”. The Dhaka University Library houses a vast collection old and rare manuscript. It is one of the biggest collections in South Asian region. Most of the manuscripts are written in Bengali, Sanskrit, Arabic, Persian, Urdu, Maithili and Hindi script. Main subject of these manuscript are Kāvya, Ciṭhi, Dalila, Maṅgala Kāvya, Rāmāyaṇa, Mahābhārata, Jyotiṣa, Padmāpurāṇa, Pāṁcālī, Purāṇa, Vaiṣṇava Kāvya, Hisāba Patra.

I congratulate the compilers and the concerned persons of the manuscripts section who put their sincere effort to make this publication possible.

I sincerely hope that this volume will be of immense help in research scholars working in related field.

Prof. Dr. Nasiruddin Munshi
Librarian (Acting)
Dhaka University Library

Introduction

It is with great pleasure that I write the introduction to the index published by Dhaka University Library with the title "A Chronological Index of Bengali Manuscripts". It is the most important and new addition to Dhaka university library publication. Previously, Dhaka University Library published three volumes of alphabetic indices titled as "An Alphabetical Index of Bengali Manuscripts". This current publication deviates from previous alphabetical indices as this index is arranged by the date of writing and copying of manuscripts.

Dhaka University Library has vast collection of ancient and medieval manuscripts which are written in different languages such as Bengali, Sanskrit, Urdu, Persian, Arabic, Assame and Maithili. Dhaka university library has more than ten thousand Bengali manuscripts and we have published indices for this entire collection that are based on alphabetical order of title. The readers will find 1456 manuscripts from the period of 1615 A.D to 1870 A.D in this new chronological index. This index follows the format maintained by the previous alphabetical index of Bengali manuscripts. Each entry in this index contains- (a) Title (b) Author (c) Folio (d) Date of writing and coping (e) Complete/incomplete (f) Subject (g) Size and (h) Call Number. Manuscripts included in this index are not only rich in diversity of period but also in the variety of subject contents.

This new index is made possible by the joint effort of the officers in the Manuscripts Section at Dhaka University Library. They have undoubtedly put their sincere effort to make this publication possible. I express my gratitude to all personnel who contributed to this publication. I hope that this Chronological index will prove to be a useful resource for researchers, scholars and readers in home and abroad.
